Quality Aspect: Usability

Non-Functional Requirement:

The SINTA system should be easy to use, allowing students to select their service purpose and take a queue number without confusion.

Brief Justification:

This requirement is important because SINTA is used by students with different service needs. An easy-to-use system can help students get a queue number quickly and reduce mistakes when selecting a service.